We will be their Mothers

by MiaQc

Summary

Microfic. Eve holds her love Saya in her arms. They only have each other.

- A translation of Nous serons leurs Mères by MiaQc

I hold my love in my arms. Saya, so beautiful, so fragile. Like me she's pregnant but she says she doesn't bear children.

“Thank you, Eve. I feel so good wrapped in your arms.”

“You're welcome, my love. We only have each other.”

“Those humans... they'll try to kill us!”

“There's nothing they can do. When the Ultimate Being is born, their world will be doomed.”

The Ultimate Being, my baby. My child.

“I know, Eve, and when my spores spread through the air, humans will become my children.”

I didn't expect Saya to have the same goal as me and yet she did. The Ultimate Being will purge humanity, evolving the survivors. My love's spores will transform them into wonderful, superior beings. Saya and I will be their Mothers. No one will stop us, not even Aya.
